

27th International Conference of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners

27e Conférence internationale
des commissaires à la protection
des données et à la vie privée

The protection of personal data and privacy in a globalised world: A universal right respecting diversities

Printer-friendly version of <http://www.privacyconference2005.org/index.php?id=7>

Wednesday, 14 September 2005

Opening session The individual in a globalised World

Plenary Session One law of data protection in different legal, economic, political and cultural systems: utopia or reality?

Lunch

Parallel Panel Sessions –The principles of data protection, an adequate answer to the Internet?

–New invasive technologies, are new data protection standards needed?

–What can organisational and evaluation techniques offer to guarantee data protection?

Plenary Session The economy facing a vast variety of data protection rules: towards a simplification of regulations and procedures?

Gala Dinner

Thursday, 15 September 2005

Plenary Session 10 years after the adoption of the EU Directive 95/46/EC on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data: What are the experiences, what the prospects?

Parallel Panel Sessions –The importance of self-regulation in the implementation of data protection principles

–The effectiveness of data protection supervision

–The regulation of transborder data flows facing globalisation

Lunch

Parallel Panel Sessions –How can the requirements of data protection be reconciled with the fight against terrorism?

–The role of the private sector in data processing to fulfil public tasks, or when private companies become “Big Brother”

–Biobanks and the related challenges

Parallel Panel Sessions –Political marketing: towards a code of conduct?

–The contribution of international organisations to the enforcement of data protection law

Conclusion Conclusion of the open session of the Conference

Friday, 16 September (Closed Session of Data Protection and Privacy Commissioners)

Closed Session Regional Conferences

Closed Session International Conference of Data Protection Commissioners

Lunch

Closed Session International Conference of Data Protection Commissioners (Contd.)

Click here to register online. For further information, please contact us by the form provided.